adidas Originals – EQT Support Ultra adidas Originals presents another brand new edition of the EQT Support Ultra model this month, reconfiguring the classic-meets-contemporary Equipment silhouette in the iconic 90s series' striking new colour palette.

Retaining the original EQT Support model's mesh/nubuck construction, this release sees the EQT Support Ultra in a predominantly white treatment, balanced with white panel overlays and a contrast TPU support panel in EQT's new signature Turbo Red. All of the shoe's vital details are retained in full, including an asymmetrical wraparound tongue and webbed 3-stripes with integrated lacing system, placed atop the contemporary Ultra Boost tooling that grants the shoe its name. The result is a crisp and clean new approach to a shoe that encapsulates the adidas Originals philosophy of classic design with a contemporary perspective.
