New Holland is pleased to announce that Oakes Bros Ltd is to expand its commercial operations by investing in South Wiltshire.

After many years of successful business as a New Holland dealer, Oakes Bros Ltd has extended its territory and is planning to open a new depot around Salisbury.

The new facility will provide excellence in customer service together with the support of a strong parts stocking in the new facility and other Oakes Bros Ltd branches. It will also offer workshop facilities with technicians based at the Salisbury depot.

Oakes Bros Ltd operates from three other depots in Berkshire, West Sussex and Micheldever, Hampshire and is well established in the area.

Edmund Lindley, Managing Director for Oakes Bros Ltd commented: "We are excited about this new chapter for Oakes Bros Ltd and the opportunity to meet new customers. We think it is the right time for our business and our people to grow. We look forward to developing new business in Wiltshire, while strengthening and supporting our customers in the area, working together with the New Holland team."

Andrew Watson, New Holland Business Director UK & ROI, added: "Following last week's news about Francis Bugler's expansion, this is another testament of the trust and commitment that our dealers have towards the New Holland brand.
