FILA

HURRICANE COLLECTION

PLAY — BOLDLY

Taking cues from the styles of tournament champions in the '80s and '90s, FILA Hurricane puts showpiece patterns in wearable primary colors right in Center Court. Here, blazing yellow, peacoat navy, and white streak across the fabric, fading in and out across styles, while body map jacquard panels and contrast piping amp the energy in subtler ways. But it's the smallest details—like bungee drawcords on shorts—that let players know this collection was not only designed to max out on style, but performance too.
