

2015 PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT - SCRIPT

VO:

I'm Beth Battagline, President and CEO of HealthyWomen dot org, here to let you know about Magnolia Meals at Home – a unique, no-cost meal delivery service that provides nourishing meals to breast cancer patients and their families.

These meals, delivered direct to homes affected by breast cancer, can help ease the stress of daily life for patients and their family members.

Magnolia Meals at Home is provided at no-cost, with no requirement for financial need to participate.

Eligible participants living in and around [Woodcliff Lake, NJ; Andover, MA; Raleigh-Durham, NC; Boston, MA; select areas in New York; select areas in New Hampshire] can receive up to two months of home meal deliveries – including meals designed to help meet the nutritional needs of people living with breast cancer.

Magnolia Meals at Home is a partnership among Magnolia, CancerCare, Cancer Support Community, Meals On Wheels Association of America and Cornucopia Cancer Support Center.

For more information, visit magnoliamealsathome.com.