LET'S MAKE ROOM FOR LIFE
MILAN 4-9 APRIL

IKEA FESTIVAL LET'S MAKE ROOM FOR LIFE

Founded on the principle of Democratic Design, the objective of IKEA has always been to create a better everyday life for the many people. On the occasion of Salone del Mobile 2017, IKEA celebrates these values with an unforgettable exhibition in the heart of Milan's Lambrate district.

Taking place over six days, the exhibition "IKEA Festival – Let's Make Room For Life", invites visitors from all over the world to share in an immersive experience about Democratic Design, ambient live acts and happenings to entertain, educate and inspire. The exhibition provides a place to rest and refresh during the busy Salone with tempting food, drinks, comfortable seating and plenty of recharging points.

Located in a 3500 m2 warehouse space in the city's Lambrate district, the exhibition is laid out around four main areas, each one exploring a different aspect of the IKEA universe, its philosophy and vision.

The exhibition takes place from 10am to 8pm each day, ensuring that there is always something happening.

Responding to the challenge, British designer Faye Toogood has created an abstract interior that ties in with the IKEA Festival's underlying themes of play and creativity. Called "Enfant Terrible", her interior is an experimental bricolage that repurposes the IKEA signature flatpack furniture. The central structure called the Playhouse is an art-brut shanty pieced together from raw and mismatched IKEA panels. Surrounding it are a collection of smaller sculptural pieces called the Misfits – hybrid fabrications of hacked furniture. The nearby Den is a softer iteration of the theme, a surreal assembly of canvas panels that mimic the familiar fixtures of domestic life. Sisal rugs painted by hand with industrial pigments cover the floor, featuring a stylised interpretation of the silent figure who guides us in assembling IKEA furniture.

Inspired by Villa La Ricarda, a family home and cultural refuge, built just outside Barcelona in the 1950s, the editors of OpenHouse, Andrew Trotter and Mari Luz Vidal, has set out to create a social space where people can come to relax and enjoy live music. At its heart is a fireplace for people to gather and play instruments.

"Using IKEA furniture to create a 50's inspired home, with musicians hanging out and giving concerts throughout the day, to give a sense of relaxation and inspiration, to make everyone feel at home and welcomed. Here is where a new community is being made."

LET'S MAKE ROOM FOR HARMONY

ANNA & PELLA

Anna Lenskog Belfrage and Pella Hedeby are the interior stylists behind the daily Swedish inspiration blog IKEA Livet Hemma.

"We've made four living rooms, all different, but with some similarities. All rooms have space for relaxing and re-energising. Each room also has space for personal style and creativity. Looking into how people live at home and how they consider their homes is our inspiration. We see that they want to slow down, live more sustainably and find more harmony at home. We believe that a mix of vintage, simple DIY's, new and classic IKEA products, makes great living rooms!"

HOME SMART

HOME SMART SMART LIGHTING

*The smart lighting products; TRÅDFRI, FLOALT, JORMLIEN and SURTE.
Sales starts in April 2017.*

Choose a light for early mornings, another for late evenings and a third for cooking or working at home. Dim, turn off, turn on, and switch from warm to cold light using a remote control or app. Smart lighting also includes LED panels and doors, when you lack, or simply want to increase the feeling of natural daylight, which we know enhances our overall well-being. And all products are plug-and-play solutions, meaning there is no need for new wiring or hiring an electrician.

"The LED bulbs in TRÅDFRI are a very good example of how an old, familiar product such as the light bulb can suddenly do so much more simply by 'communicating' with a steering device, therefore enabling more people to have better light".

*Björn Block,
Business Leader IKEA Home Smart*

These products enable us to have better lighting at home, in an easy and affordable way. For TRÅDFRI products, all it takes is replacing a standard light bulb with the LED bulb included in the kit, and you can immediately start to change light using the remote control.

IKEA AND 10-GRUPPEN

Sales starts in May 2017.

When three young designers at IKEA join hands with the iconic design collective 10-gruppen the result is 14 powerful patterns applied on bedding, plates, trays, rugs and meter fabric, plus more. Fusing the present and the past every single piece proves that what was spectacular 45 years ago can be just as bold today – and that it's possible to celebrate history and still be super contemporary.

"10-gruppen represents the very best of Scandinavian design history – democratic ideals, aesthetic innovation and an unbeatable feeling for materials. Their design style has not aged a second; it's youthful, radical and as bold today as it was in the Seventies."

Design Manager, IKEA of Sweden

FLUID HOME

FLUID HOME

FLEXIBLE FURNITURE

The products DIHULT, EKEBOL, LALLERÖD and VEBERÖD sales starts in June 2017.

We're now introducing a range of multi-functional furniture designed for fluid living. Small flats and frequent moving are a reality for many people, especially the younger generation. To understand the needs of this group, the product development team and designers went to vibrant Amsterdam. Here the new furniture pieces were co-created using feedback from a young group of people, resulting in a brand new outlook for the range – the furniture is flexible and easy to move around, and even possible to bring home on the metro.

Meet DIHULT pouffe, EKEBOL sofa, LALLERÖD coffee table and VEBERÖD storage. Designed in an industrial style, the furniture has a unique and airy look made in clear lacquered metal and wood. These honest materials are fully separable and recyclable at the end of their life, making the furniture a sustainable choice too. They allow for personalisation, as the wood can be painted, while shelves and metal mesh can store or hang whatever fits the room. Use the furniture for socialising or working, they truly make room for life!

The STUNSIG limited edition collection is for the design and fashion lovers. The fun, edgy and sometimes poetic prints evoke a myriad of different reactions and emotions. Some are created just to make you laugh while others are made to stimulate people's imagination and appreciate the beauty in diversity.

STOCKHOLM

STOCKHOLM

THE BEAUTY OF DOING THINGS AT THE RIGHT PACE

Sales starts in April 2017.

A new collection of furniture and home accessories slowly comes to life. Each piece is a celebration of doing things at the right pace: thinking through all of the details with careful, attentive eyes, and savouring the process. Quality can't be rushed. Natural, tactile materials, and craftsmanship by skilled hands — these all take time to grow and perfect.

The first STOCKHOLM collection was launched in 1984. Each new collection is different from previous ones, but they all share some common characteristics: Scandinavian modernity of the highest quality in form, function and materials — but at an affordable price. This STOCKHOLM launch is no different. It's a carefully curated collection of 47 pieces, designed to mix and blend with what you already have at home and made from natural and tactile materials such as rattan, hand-blown glass and ash. Swedish light and nature has been an important source of inspiration. Part of the beauty is that all of the pieces have been made to use and enjoy, every day.

reddot design award

The SLADDA bicycle was awarded a Red Dot Design Award in the category "Best of the Best" for its groundbreaking design.

The whole idea behind it came about during a workshop where product developers and designers spent three days following cyclists who used their bike to solve everyday transportation needs in a city. The result was SLADDA bicycle that's not only a comfortable and low-maintenance bike, but also one that can be adapted to different needs.

Every detail of the unisex SLADDA bicycle is made to make life as easy as possible for the user. The bike has a rust- and oil-free belt drive, automatic gears and a clever click-in system for accessories such as front and back racks. There is also a practical SLADDA trailer developed to solve heavy transportation needs, as well as helmets, a U-lock and pump. This is truly a complete system that supports living a sustainable and healthy life in the city. For IKEA FAMILY members, SLADDA bicycle comes at a particularly favourable price offer.

DELAKTIG is an open platform for social living, co-created with designer Tom Dixon. This project is not only about exploring the possibility of designing open source hardware, but equally about exploring materials and challenging traditional ways of production to redefine the concept of comfort. DELAKTIG is designed to help people cope with all the activity of everyday life. It's made for your friends and family to relax and socialize, with the possibility to tailor the function to suit your living situation.

A photograph of two women in a studio setting. The woman on the left is wearing a beige hijab with sunglasses perched on top, a black and white patterned shawl, and a bright yellow beaded necklace. She is looking towards the right. The woman on the right has long, dark, wavy hair and is wearing a black top with a patterned shawl. She is focused on examining a piece of light-colored, textured fabric. In the foreground, several other fabric samples are laid out, including one with a blue and white geometric pattern and another with a red and white pattern. The background wall is covered with various architectural drawings, including floor plans and elevations, some of which are pinned to the wall. The overall atmosphere is one of creative collaboration and design.
