The Peninsula Eye Walk and The Peninsula Art Walk - First Tokyo hotel to offer virtual walking tours on an iPod®

The Peninsula continues to be the leader of innovative technology by offering customized virtual walking tours of the surrounding area and the hotel's signature Japanese interiors and extensive art collection on an iPod®. This is the first hotel in Tokyo to offer this service, where staying guests may experience The Peninsula Eye Walk and The Peninsula Art Walk by requesting an iPod® from the hotel's Concierge on a complimentary basis.

The Peninsula Eye Walk is a leisurely 60-minute walk through Hibiya Park, Tokyo's most recognized landmark, the Imperial Gardens and a walk down Marunouchi Nakadori Street – Tokyo's answer to Rodeo Drive. Along the way, the virtual Peninsula walk partner highlights important buildings, significant statues and introduces the area's history. The Peninsula Eye Walk is available in English only at this time.

The Peninsula Art Walk is a 45-minute tour through the hotel introducing the works of Japanese artisans and their age-old techniques. The Peninsula Tokyo's art collection consists of approximately 1,000 pieces created by 90 artists, 90% of them Japanese. The Peninsula Art Walk is available in English and Japanese.

The Peninsula Eye Walk and The Peninsula Art Walk tours are the ideal way to spend leisure time whether it is indoors or outdoors.
