WYNN LAS VEGAS HOTEL SALES TEAM ANNOUNCES RECENT PROMOTIONS AND NEW HIRES

LAS VEGAS (June 12, 2012) — Wynn Las Vegas and Encore are pleased to announce the promotions of Pedram Pakneshan to Assistant Director of Convention Sales, Karlee Ross to Assistant Director of Convention Services, Kidist Grznar to Senior Travel Industry Sales Manager and welcomes Debbie Deal, Southeast Executive Meetings Manager, to the team.

As Assistant Director of Convention Sales, Pakneshan is responsible for corporate, association and incentive markets in the West Coast regional market and the Pacific Rim. He works with groups of 151 rooms and above and also manages the daily sales efforts of the conference sales managers.

In her role as Assistant Director of Convention Services, Ross is responsible for managing groups over 150 rooms per night, as well as creating and administering department procedures, training, and strengthening the relationship with new and existing clients.

As a Travel Industry Sales Manager, Grznar oversees all of the international sales efforts; she directly manages relationships with Global Receptive partners and current and future direct partners in Europe (excluding the UK), Africa, Asia and Australia.

Deal joins the hotel sales team as the Southeast Executive Meetings Manager with over 10 years of sales and marketing experience. Now at Wynn, Deal is responsible for the domestic corporate, association and incentive markets and works with groups of 10 to 40 rooms.

Additional noteworthy promotions in the hotel sales department include:

- Susan Salazar to Travel Industry Sales Manager – Domestic, Canada, Mexico and South America
- Chris Allen to Executive Meetings Manager – West Coast
