- Lamborghini worldwide deliveries to customers grew by 30% to 2,083 units
- USA leading growth in worldwide major markets (+53%)
- European sales up by 34%
- 2013 marked by 50th Anniversary celebration and new dimensions in motorsport

Sant'Agata Bolognese, 13.01.2013 - Automobili Lamborghini S.p.A., the Italian luxury super sports car manufacturer, increased worldwide deliveries to customers in 2012, from 1,602 to 2,083 units. This represents a 30% growth compared to the previous year and the third consecutive year of growth.

"In spite of ongoing worldwide financial and economic uncertainties, Lamborghini has delivered a very satisfying performance in 2012, confirming the strength of our product and commercial strategy. We will continue to work on the development of our product range to address further growth in the future," said Stephan Winkelmann, President and CEO of Automobili Lamborghini S.p.A.

The growth is driven by the first full year of sales for the new Aventador LP 700-4 (922 units) while the Gallardo confirms its status as the most successful Lamborghini ever with an almost stable performance compared to 2011 (1,161 units sold in 2012) and reaching a total of more than 13,000 cars delivered since its launch.

Lamborghini is a global brand and sales distribution is well balanced among the three regions: Europe 29%, America 28% (of which USA is 25%) and Asia Pacific 35% (of which China accounts for 15%). The Middle East and South Africa account for 8%.

Despite global market headwinds Lamborghini grew in Europe by 34% versus 2011, in the Americas by 50% (USA +53%) and in Asia Pacific by 9%.

In 2013 the Aventador LP 700-4 Roadster, the most extraordinary open top super sports car, will join the successful coupé. Initial pre-order expectations for this model have been exceeded and the order bank for both versions covers the next 15 months.

For 2013, a focus for the 'raging bull' brand includes further investments into Lamborghini Motorsport. Following four seasons in Europe and the first season in Asia, the Lamborghini Blancpain Super Trofeo has made its mark as the only one-make four-wheel drive series and the fastest one-brand racing series in the world. In 2013, the series will run on three continents, entering the USA with a new series for the Americas.
