BURSTING PARTY OF ADIDAS ALL ORIGINALS REPRESENT IN SOFIA

Factory 126 gathered under one roof freerunners, graffiti artists and hip hop dancers

Unique party for the capital Sofia brought together in FACTORY 126 representatives of the underground culture in our country on Sunday, 4th of November. Organizers from adidas have tried to make the show memorable for all who joined it. The party started at 14:00 pm with the incredible performance of the boys from Freerun Bulgaria, who demonstrated their skills in the factory yard. The hosts had taken care to provide many obstacles that made the route more attractive and enabled freerunners to show their skills and imagination. The route included two cars, on which the talented guys from Freerun Bulgaria showed impressive skills.

The beautiful graffiti by FourPlus, SPIT and SAIAN came to life in the factory yard. „Our art remains misunderstood in Bulgaria and this is why we work very rarely here. We are not hacks, but true artists. So for us it is a real pleasure to be part of this event and to show the beauty of our art,, shared the artists of FourPlus.

The party was rocked by the battles between the hip hop dancers which were organized by MonsTribe. Dancers of all ages joined the underground dance battle competition hosted by Don Eddy and made the party even more fascinating.

Everyone who attended the adidas all originals represent party on Sunday, enjoyed the live performances by YoungBBYoung, Ogi23, and the unforgettable sound of Pistamashina. DJ Marten took care of the heating the mood and a DJ set by JamezBongg rocked the FACTORY 126 for the powerful after party.
