Stan Smith / Kvadrat

Inspired by Copenhagen, the city where utilitarian design, Japanese aesthetic and modernist values collide, adidas Originals presents a new collaboration with one of Europe's leading textile manufacturers, Kvadrat, to create a truly special edition take on the iconic Stan Smith silhouette.

Working closely with the Scandinavian company, the release presents three new iterations of the Stan Smith constructed from Kvadrat's contemporary plaid fabric, countered with embroidered details of the 3-stripesmark and a contrast leather heel patch. Branding details on the tongue and heel complete the picture, placed atop a classic white cupsole. The adidas Originals x Kvadrat Stan Smith releases will be available in three colorways – Navy, Pink and Core Black – culminating as a collaborative release that's full of tone, texture and color.
