NMD_CS2 PK

adidas Originals' futuristic NMD_CS2 model assumes two new colorways this month, with the sock-fit minimalist silhouette stepping out in a duo of palettes for men and women.

For women, the NMD_CS2 silhouette receives a full Primeknit construction with the shoe's signature single-panel design which wraps around the foot. Elevated with an all-over graphic pattern, its black colorway is elevated with a flash of pink, placed atop a classic white BOOST midsole and tooling.

The men's iteration takes a similar color approach in a tonal black palette combined with the latest 'shadow knit' technology, creating a striking color-shifting effect which is finished with a classic BOOST and EVA midsole. The result is a dual-release for men and women that brings the NMD_CS2 model's hyper-futuristic design to the fore with understated style.
