

Information

Superstar New FSH

The Superstar 80s' laceless sister model, the Superstar New FSH, receives a brand new release for FW17 in a crisp and clean grey color treatment.

Featuring a full suede upper with a premium leather lining, the Superstar New FSH blends classic adidas aesthetic with contemporary design perspectives, swapping the Superstar's traditional lacing system for a full elastic webbing strap with jacquard-woven "The Brand with the 3-stripes" branding. Finishing touches such as gold Superstar branding, a rubber cupsole with herringbone-pattern outsole and the iconic Superstar shell-toe complete the picture, creating a fluid blend of adidas classics and contemporary design.
