EQT Racing ADV W

adidas Originals' modern adaptation of the classic EQT Racing model, the EQT Racing ADV, steps out in a new women's-exclusive color treatment this month, pairing an understated monochrome palette with subtle pops of color to create a bold statement release.

Inspired and informed by the original EQT Racing silhouette, the EQT Racing ADV combines a stretch-knit upper with the OG's unique webbing tape lacing system and asymmetrical tongue for ease of entry, superior fit and comfort, supported by a leather heel piece with a printed snakeskin pattern. This is placed atop a classic EVA midsole with EQT's signature integrated 3-stripes mark for a perfect combination of classic and contemporary. Assuming a classic Core Black/White colorway with a flash of Icey Pink on the heel, the result is a softly-spoken iteration of one of EQT's most fascinating silhouettes, releasing exclusively for women.
