Winter AF 1.3 PK and 1.4 PK

adidas Originals presents a brandnew colorway of the utilitarian AF 1.3 PK and AF 1.4 PK silhouettes this week, rendering the weather-ready winter models in a striking new context.

Retaining each shoe's original blend of functional design and modern aesthetics, both the high-top AF 1.3 PK and low-top AF 1.4 PK return in full Primeknit constructions with waterproof overlays and insulation linings. Full-length lacing and embroidered 3-stripes marks complete the picture, placed atop a rugged black hiking outsole ready for the elements. This time, the duo has been rendered in a vivid Scarlet colorway, offset by a white midsole and contrast Shock Purple heel panel, transforming their calculated practical design into a bold style statement for the colder months.
