

adidas Golf Athletes' Geared For More' at The Open Championship

Johnson, Day, Garcia, and Rose to wear styles from the adidas Golf Autumn / Winter 2016 Range

The 145th Open Championship returns to Royal Troon in a few days and adidas Golf is excited to share the apparel scripting to be worn by its key athletes. Dustin Johnson, Jason Day, Sergio Garcia and Justin Rose will be Geared For More as they hit the links in their quest to take home the Claret Jug.

Dustin Johnson, the new #2 in the World, will take the course wearing the climacool® performance polo, with climacool technology for zonal cooling, throughout the week. He will pair the polos with the ultimate pant, which features a stretch waistband with silicone gripper, moisture-wicking and water resistant stretch fabrication, and snag-free micromesh pockets, and TOUR360 BOOST footwear.

World's #1 Jason Day will sport green and blue tones wear wearing the climacool 3-Stripes polos and climacool blocked print polos throughout the tournament. He will also be dialed in wearing TOUR360 BOA BOOST footwear.

In his quest for his first Major win, Sergio Garcia will be vibrant with pops of orange highlighting his polo selection during play. Wearing three different polos throughout the tournament, including the climachill™ 3-Stripes competition polo and climachill camo print, both of which feature climachill technology –offering 360° cooling ventilation, and the climacool engineered stipe polo. Garcia will pair his polos with the ultimate pant and TOUR360 BOOST footwear.

Back in adidas Golf apparel, Justin Rose will wear four different polos in key Autumn/winter colourways including mineral blue and utility green. All of these polos feature a seamless body construction to keep him dry and comfortable.
