

adidas by Stella McCartney Bras: No movement goes unsupported

Feel supported no matter how you choose to move in the latest adidas by Stella McCartney Bra range.

Whether for low-impact movement, such as barre and yoga, or intense sports sessions, like running and spinning, the Spring/Summer 2018 collection has you - and your 2018 workouts - covered.

The piece: Seamless Bra

Offers: Light support

Great for: Low-impact activities, such as yoga, pilates and barre

Details: Designed for ultimate comfort thanks to a seamless construction, the soft Climalite yarns of this light support bra keeps you dry and focused on your posture. Featuring a racer front and cut out back, a breathable open mesh structure and a ribbed waistband, relax into the flow of your discipline and allow the Seamless Bra to see you from plie through to namaste.

The piece: Stronger For It

Offers: High support

Great for: High-impact activities, such as running and tennis

Details: Engineered with breathable and highly supportive power mesh and ultra-cooling ClimaCool technology, stay on top of your game in this tight-fit, racer back bra. Featuring a one-piece padded and moulded cup to create its feminine shape and clean finish, the extra sturdy bonding construction ensures ultimate stability and bounce reduction, while the exposed logo elastic, strap adjuster and back closer keep you supported in the toughest of sessions.

The piece: HIIT Bra

Offers: Medium support

Great for: Fast-paced activities, such as spinning, boxing and HIIT classes

Details: Built with soft Climalite jersey combined with breathable and supportive power mesh and additional comfy mesh inside. Designed to allow for sideward rotations, the HIIT Bra features integrated pads, feminine front and racer back, in addition to a cut out back and an exposed logo elastic. Make the most of each class and push the tempo in this tight-fit garment.

STELLA McCARTNEY
