

adidas by Stella McCartney Knit: Optimum performance with ultimate comfort

Experience ultimate comfort and flexibility whilst practising yoga, training in the studio, or on your daily run in adidas by Stella McCartney's fully-knitted, seamless pieces for Spring/Summer 2018. Pushing the boundaries of functional design, the collection rediscovers the benefits of knit with supportive pieces that move with the body like a second skin. Elevate your run in the Knitted Compression Calf socks, feel unstoppable in the lightweight and breathable Train Sleeve Crop, or pack that kit away in the Knit Backpack.

Achieve a new personal best in the Run Ultra Tee, designed with a wool blend specifically crafted to respond to fluctuating body temperatures and featuring a new springtime motif. Complete the look with the Run AZ Shorts, featuring seamless knit zones, and the Run Ultra Jacket, built with soft woven body material and knitted sleeves for heightened comfort during movement.

Take on new classes with complete focus in the high-waisted, knitted Train Seamless Block Tight, featuring a standout graphic design, whilst the Train Seamless Block Crop offers support and flexibility.

Master new positions in the colourful dog-tooth patterned Yoga Seamless Tight, completing the outfit in the matching light support Seamless Bra. When comfort is key, the unique knit structure Yoga SL Longsleeve is a completely seamless and supremely stretchy top that allows a full range of motion during practice.
