TUBULAR DOOM SOCK W

adidas Originals presents an updated Tubular silhouette exclusively for women. This month the Tubular Doom Sock shoe is launching in two new seasonal colorways and is updated with a breathable primeknit upper for ultralight comfort and support.

For SS18 the Tubular Doom Sock model is now available in Core white and Trace purple, featuring the classic sock like construction and textile lining. The silhouette is adorned with a premium suede heel support piece and debossed Trefoil logo, placed upon the bold Tubular Doom outsole – creating a high-spec fresh iteration of the classic fearless silhouette.
