Everyn

This season, adidas Originals introduces a brand new women's silhouette, blending classic footwear design with contemporary perspectives to create a new expression of Originals style – the Everyn shoe.

Combining elements of some of adidas' most beloved silhouettes in a new context, the Everyn silhouette offers a refreshing take on casual style, featuring a premium leather upper that pays tribute to classic models through its perforated 3-stripes marks and contrast heel patch. This is then placed atop an extra-thick sole unit, with a textured rubber shell-toe that reinforces the shoe's referential aesthetic.

Finishing touches to the design include gold foil branding on the lateral side and tonal laces, while a leather lining with a debossed logo detail completes the picture. Offered in clean white and black colorways with a contrast ash pearl nubuck heel patch, the end product is an understated reimagination of classic adidas footwear design, aligned with the forward-thinking style of today.
