

YOUR BLANK CANVAS

TERREX  PACK
PUSH IT DOWN | PAINT IT UP

Most shoes tell a story about the manufacturer. Silhouettes are created by a designer, not a wearer. Colours are decided by a creative team, not an athlete. What if you could make a pair of shoes truly your own, and customise them by doing what you love?

WITH THE ZERODYE TRAIL RUNNING PACK, YOU WEAR YOUR STORY.

ZeroDye is a concept that flips conventional footwear on its head, using materials in their natural colour state, to save natural resources. That means every shoe is waiting for you to write your story as you run.

EVERY MARK IS A CHAPTER, EVERY STAIN AND MUD-SPLAT A SUBPLOT IN YOUR UNIQUE OFF-ROAD ADVENTURES.

These marks are something to be celebrated and worn with pride. Rather than taking away from the shoe's look, the ZeroDye concept embraces the battle scars that you leave on them.

Skipping the dyeing process also saves resources in the production process by using materials in their natural colours, bringing a new element of sustainability to technical clothing design, while packing in TERREX features that help you push your limits.

When you put on a pair of TERREX ZeroDye shoes, you're recording your unique trail experience. With ZeroDye, you are the designer. With TERREX, you set the limits.
