RACINE, Wisconsin (March 26, 2018)

Case IH announces Case IH Vice President in North America Jim Walker will retire from the company after more than 11 years, effective immediately. Scott Harris, current vice president of CASE Construction, will transition to Case IH and lead the brand as vice president for the North American region.

“Jim’s leadership has made a significant impact on the Case IH brand, and we thank him for his contribution,” said Andreas Klauser, Case IH president. “We are excited for Scott Harris to join the Case IH brand and drive success for the brand as we look toward the future.”

Harris has demonstrated strong leadership in many positions at CASE Construction and displayed passion for the high-efficiency farming equipment producers rely on every day. His varied roles have prepared him to lead Case IH, focusing on both the needs of producers and its dealer network.
