

CNH Industrial India named amongst the 'Dream companies to work for' at Human Resource Development Congress

New Delhi, April 5, 2019

CNH Industrial India, a global capital goods company and local manufacturer of agricultural and construction equipment, recently won the title of 'Dream company to work for' in the Manufacturing Sector category at the ET Now News awards. ET Now is an English-language news channel in India, which is a part of the Times Network. The awards were announced during the World Human Resource Development (HRD) Congress held in Mumbai. Ajay Ambewadikar, Head of Human Resources for CNH Industrial India, along with Sanghamitra Sarkar, HR Financial Services, received the award on behalf of the Company.

The jury evaluated CNH Industrial according to a set of parameters such as brand and product perception, HR policies & practices, the opinion of employees and a holistic overview of their business in India. This award is further testament to CNH Industrial's reputation as a fair and respected company in the country with a positive corporate culture.

"This is indeed a coveted title which exemplifies trust, respect and team spirit. We are extremely proud of this award and will certainly continue to live up to this recognition in the years to come," said Mr. Ajay Ambewadikar.

The HRD Congress brought close to 2,000 professionals together from over 133 countries. It focused on issues such as HR Tech, HR Management & Development, Diversity and Inclusion at a national level, also spotlighting the important role of women as leaders in the field of HR.

CNH Industrial employs over 2,500 people in India. The Company locally manufactures agricultural equipment through its New Holland Agriculture and Case IH brands at its industrial bases in Greater Noida and Pune. It is in fact the first company in the country to offer a complete line-up of mechanized solutions to the agricultural community. CNH Industrial also manufactures construction equipment through its CASE Construction Equipment brand at its Pithampur (Indore) plant. Tailored financial services are offered through CNH Industrial Capital (India) Private Limited.

The Company also operates a Customer Care centre, which is available in eight languages to support its customers across the country. It can be reached toll free at: 1-800-419-0124.
