A 2016 LIMITED EDITION COLLABORATION

MARION BARTOLI

When she first hit the courts, French native Marion Bartoli astounded tennis legends and fans alike with her intense, unorthodox two-handed groundstroke—one of many signature techniques which would later advance her to earn the title of 2013 Wimbledon Champion.

Now she's ready to prove herself a breakthrough once again.

A lifelong lover of style and sketching, even as she climbed the athletic ranks, Marion always knew in her heart that her future was in fashion. So naturally FILA, the brand that has built a 100+ year legacy on the fusion of sport and style, was a perfect match when it came to collaborating.

This limited edition collection brings together elements of chic from Paris (Marion's home), London (where Marion won), and Italy (FILA's origins) for one truly soulful lineup.

Prepare to fall in love at first sight.

TROPHÉE COLLECTION

For 105 years, FILA has believed that beyond activity, sport is an ever-expanding identity fueled by passions for excellence, adventure, competition, and pleasure.

Over the last half century, FILA has been there for iconic moments, accompanying extraordinary individuals in pursuit of true sport - those who courageously challenge limits and defy expectations through a seamless combination of power and grace. From its humble textile beginnings in Biella, Italy to its historic introduction of color on the tennis court in 1973, the brand has always taken pride in creating designs as bold and breakthrough as its wearers. With a philosophy of innovation and a commitment to performance and sophistication, FILA continues to make a statement with styles that are novel in aesthetic and effective in function.

It is through our experiences that we have learned: any place, anywhere, life in motion is a beautiful thing.

Per oltre 105 anni FILA ha creduto che oltre all'attività fisica, lo sport sia un identità che si sviluppa alimentata dalla passione per l'eccellenza, dall'avventura, dalla competizione e dal piacere.

Per più di 50 anni FILA ha fatto parte di momenti storici, a fianco di persone straordinarie, alla ricerca dello sport vero: uomini e donne che con coraggio hanno sfidato e oltrepassato i propri limiti, combinando eleganza e potenza.

Fondata a Biella, città del nord Italia, FILA ha iniziato come semplice fabbrica tessile, introducendo per prima, nel 1973, gli indumenti colorati nei campi da tennis; il brand ne ha sempre fatto un vanto, creando disegni sempre più audaci ed innovativi, al pari di chi li ha indossati. Seguendo questa filosofia rivoluzionaria, che unisce prestazioni e raffinatezza, FILA porta avanti il suo messaggio con uno stile suggestivo ed efficace.

E proprio dalla nostra esperienza abbiamo imparato che in ogni luogo ed in ogni situazione, la vita vissuta in movimento è una cosa meravigliosa.

Depuis 104 ans, FILA a la conviction que le sport est bien plus qu'une activité, c'est une marque d'identité en constante expansion, alimentée par la passion pour l'excellence, l'aventure, la compétition et le plaisir.

Au cours des 50 dernières années, FILA a toujours été là dans les moments emblématiques, aux côtés de personnes exceptionnelles en quête d'un sport authentique - celles qui défient courageusement les limites et dépassent toutes les prévisions grâce à la combinaison parfaite de la force et de la grâce.

De ses humbles débuts dans le textile à Biella (Italie) à son introduction historique de la couleur sur les courts de tennis en 1973, la marque s'est toujours enorgueillie de créer des designs aussi audacieux et novateurs que ceux qui les portent. Avec une philosophie d'innovation et un engagement de performance et de sophistication, FILA continue de s'affirmer avec des styles esthétiquement innovants et fonctionnels.

C'est au travers de nos expériences que nous avons appris: n'importe où, partout, la vie en mouvement est une belle chose.
