The Future Host Questionnaire contains the information that the International Olympic Committee (“IOC”) requires from the Preferred Host(s) during a Targeted Dialogue for the Summer Youth Olympic Games (“YOG”). In addition to answers to questions on various topics contained in this document, a number of guarantees are requested from the Preferred Host(s) and other relevant third parties. Further information on the specific requirements for each guarantee is contained in Annex 1 \(List of Guarantees\).

The responses and guarantees submitted by the Preferred Host(s) during the Targeted Dialogue, together with information already obtained during the Continuous Dialogue, will be used to support the development of a report by the Future Host Commission for the Games of the Olympiad to the IOC Executive Board (EB). The EB will further assess the Preferred Host(s) and decide whether to recommend one or more Preferred Hosts for election by the IOC Session.

It should be noted that the responses and guarantees submitted by the Preferred Host(s) will form an integral part of the Host Contract.

VISION, CONCEPT AND LEGACY

1. VISION, CONCEPT AND LEGACY

The Youth Olympic Games (YOG) offer a unique opportunity to their host to unite young people from across the globe in mutual understanding and respect at the world's leading youth sports competition. The YOG create meaningful change by delivering long-lasting benefits for local, regional, and national communities, and especially for younger generations. To take full advantage of the opportunities that hosting the Youth Olympic Games can provide, clear objectives must be in place for what you want the YOG to deliver to young people and all other residents of your city, region and country.

For the Games to fulfil their mission to be truly sustainable, these objectives must align with existing long term socio-economic development plans and strategies for youth and sports. Furthermore, your YOG concept must be based on the use of only existing and temporary venues. Hosts are encouraged to consider innovative alternatives to new venues, including venues outside the host region or country, if no suitable local facility exists.

In addition to inspiring local communities, a strong vision for the YOG can inspire millions of young people internationally and be a showcase to the world. Your YOG project should have a common thread to inspire legacy and engagement projects, running through the lead-up to the Games, during Games-time and beyond.

1.1 Vision

Describe your vision for the Youth Olympic Games. What is the unique story of your edition of the YOG?

1.2 Impact and legacy

The YOG can be a transformative event for a city/region/country. What concrete long term economic, social and environmental benefits and youth and sport legacies would hosting the YOG bring to your city/region/country?

Youth and sport legacy refers to all initiatives and programmes that:

- bring and/or retain more young people into organised and competitive sport;
- promote movement and physical activity, as in “more active, healthy lifestyles” to young people in general;
- address specific youth-related issues such as youth unemployment, dependencies and abuse (alcohol, drugs, social media), sexual and mental health, and harassment;
- promote youth participation, youth empowerment, youth gender equality, diversity and inclusion (giving young people a stronger voice in politics and decision-making, ensuring gender-equal access to opportunities and equal opportunities to young people from minorities (LGBTQI, immigrants, etc.);
- focus on any other youth-related matters such as education, well-being, safe sport, dual career management and staying safe online;
- foster economic opportunities for local youth through upskilling and professional development initiatives, along with support for youth-led small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) and social businesses;
- promote innovation in delivering sports events.

Provide an overview of your legacy programme, including:

- priority themes, targets, timescales and monitoring of the legacy objectives;
- potential funding sources including an explanation on how the funding will be secured for the implementation of the legacy programmes and their continuation in the post-YOG period;
- proactive communication and public engagement strategy.

Please consider that those legacy outcomes would be delivered through the whole lifecycle of the project, including in the years leading up to the YOG. Please also explore the possibility of further building on legacies and benefits from previous Olympic events or major sport events hosted in your territory.

In addition, indicate how the YOG will contribute to the development of the Olympic sports and the Olympic values in your city/region/country.

1.3 Alignment with city/regional vision and objectives

Explain the strategic rationale for hosting the YOG in terms of your city/region's long-term vision and objectives.

Explain the alignment of your YOG concept with your existing youth and sport development strategies at national and local levels.

- Please list the authorities/bodies/actors leading the implementation of these youth strategies, and explain how you would engage with them in the context of the YOG.

1.4 Venue Master Plan

YOG concept

Your YOG concept must be based on the use of only existing or temporary venues, with the flexibility to propose venues outside the host city/region and even outside the host country. If not all the venues exist in your city/region/country, you are invited to discuss options for the particular sport(s)/discipline(s) with the IOC. YOG venues must not be located in natural protected areas.

Outline your proposed Youth Olympic Games Venue Master Plan by:

A) Describing:

- the rationale for the selection of competition and non-competition venues
- the key differentiators or characteristics of your Games concept
- how your plan aligns with your sustainability and legacy ambitions

B) Providing a concept map for the Youth Olympic Games. This should be a map of your city/region on which your proposed project is superimposed, thus giving a complete visual overview of your project.

Instructions for the concept map:

The map should be no larger than A3 with the graphic scale used clearly indicated, showing your project superimposed over the city/region.

The map should include all key YOG venues and major infrastructure, including:

- Proposed competition venues
- Festival sites
- Opening/Closing Ceremony venue(s)
- Youth Olympic Village(s)
- Olympic Family Hotel(s)

C) Providing a list of the following, using Annex 2:

- proposed competition venues (as shown on the concept map)
- proposed non-competition venues (as shown on the concept map)

Information provided on the competition venues must include:

- Sport/discipline
- Gross seating and standing (where applicable) capacities (including temporary seating) of competition venues
- Current use of each venue
- Games time warm-up capacity (if required for the sport/discipline)
- Distance from the Youth Olympic Village(s)

1.7 Dates of the YOG

State your proposed dates for hosting the Youth Olympic Games and specify your reasons for choosing the period and duration (particular consideration should be given to the sports competition calendar and athlete experience).

YOG EXPERIENCE

2. YOG EXPERIENCE

The primary goal of the YOG is to organise high-level sport competitions, while maximising opportunities to educate and engage with young athletes and local young people, inspiring them to play an active role in their communities.

Athlete experience is at the heart of the YOG. The event is a crucial educational step on the participants' career path, enabling them to enhance their long-term athletic development and employment opportunities both inside and outside the sporting arena. The Youth Olympic Games are centred on a "Compete, Learn & Share" experience that is delivered in a purpose-driven sports festival format. It strives to reach and engage the young athletes by integrating sport with an education programme and cultural activities, to enable them to learn about the Olympic values, explore different cultures, develop skills to become true ambassadors of sport, and improve training methods and performance.

Engagement programmes targeting local young people and their families should also be developed by the host in the lead-up to and during the YOG. These programmes take the form of a festival and cover a wide range of activities such as sports initiations, school programmes, live concerts, art performances, mass events and city celebrations. Local young people are encouraged to take an active role in the delivery of the festival, making the YOG an event for young people, organised by young people.

Please specify the type of accommodation to be used (e.g. existing university campus, existing hotels or planned development) and specific requirements/arrangements for safely accommodating young athletes.
- Indicate whether there are any plans to build or upgrade sites that will be required to deliver the Youth Olympic Village in accordance with your concept. If so, indicate the nature of these works, and which authorities (national, regional, city, etc.) will be responsible for planning, financing and building new and upgraded sites, as well as their use after the YOG.
- Indicate the estimated maximum price per person and per day for full board at the Youth Olympic Village (in 2030 USD value) and describe how this maximum price has been determined, clearly specifying all the direct and indirect costs included in this price.

Sport has been recognised by the United Nations (UN) as an important enabler of sustainable development. As one of the five themes of Olympic Agenda 2020+5, the IOC's roadmap for the future, sustainability is a key priority for the Olympic Movement.

As the owner of the Youth Olympic Games, the IOC works with the Preferred Host(s) to ensure that sustainability - encompassing environmental, economic, and social dimensions, with a focus on climate, nature protection, gender equality, diversity and inclusion, as well as human and child rights - is addressed as a strategic topic in every aspect of the project from Continuous Dialogue until and after the delivery of the YOG.

Furthermore, future hosts are invited to leverage the unique platform provided by the YOG to engage the world's young people and to reflect and promote their interests and concerns around sustainability.

GOVERNANCE AND FUNDING

4. GOVERNANCE AND FUNDING

The IOC entrusts the organisation of the YOG to the NOC of the host country and to the host city(ies)/region(s). For that purpose, the NOC and the host form a Youth Olympic Games Organising Committee which, from the time it is constituted, will become a party to the Host Contract and communicate directly with the IOC. The IOC and the Olympic Movement will be the trusted partners of the YOGOC, integrating the experience and expertise from previous editions of the YOG. Effective planning and delivery of the YOG require a governance structure that includes the active involvement of, among others, municipal, regional and national authorities and non-governmental organisations. It is essential to establish clear roles and responsibilities and to foster solid partnerships between all levels of government and all YOG stakeholders. Specific consideration should be given to clearly defining the operational and financial roles and responsibilities.

The YOGOC is also responsible for securing the funding for the Games. The YOG Organisation Budget covers the operational costs related to the delivery of the event, such as sports competitions, workforce, transport and technology. The YOGOC budget must be aligned with the split of responsibilities as defined in your governance model.

4.1 Overall YOG governance

Identify the key organisations, institutions, authorities and/or other stakeholders (as per the list below) that will be responsible for the planning and delivery of the YOG.

Organisations/institutions/authorities and stakeholders to be considered include:

- National government ministries/agencies/bodies
- City/regional government authorities
- Competent authorities responsible for transport operations
- Public and/or private organisations that will be involved with security for the YOG
- Public and/or private organisations that will be involved with accommodation (including for the NOC team delegations and YOG facilities)
- Interest groups, including non-governmental organisations, community groups and the private sector, consulted throughout the YOG planning and delivery on sustainability and legacy.

Describe the support they will provide and the specific responsibilities of each entity in the planning and delivery of the YOG, including consideration for their relationship with and support to the YOGOC (which will be created in accordance with the Host Contract).

- Identify the specific responsibilities (including financial where applicable) of each entity and how they will be integrated and coordinated, both among themselves and with the YOGOC, throughout the YOG planning and delivery.
- Clarify the legal form (private/public nature) and describe the structure of the YOGOC.
- Specify the YOGOC strategy to empower young employees and to make sure that young leaders are represented at every level of the governance structure.
- Describe the structure of governance for your YOG project, including reference to non-governmental organisations, community groups and the private sector.
- Describe the post-YOG governance (including funding sources) of youth sport initiatives and programmes.

Use Annex 5 to provide information about the scope of responsibilities of public authorities involved in the delivery of the YOG.

4.2 Host Contract signatories

List the proposed signatories of the Host Contract and the planned split of roles and responsibilities.

4.3. YOG Organisation Budget

Using the budget template in Annex 6, provide a high-level Organisation Budget for the Youth Olympic Games in the local currency and in USD in 2030 values. Please indicate the USD/local currency exchange rate and inflation rate (where applicable) used in preparing the budget and the relevant source of information (e.g. IMF, OECD or National Statistical Agency).

The YOG Organisation Budget should cover the lifetime of the YOGOC (from creation to dissolution) and should incorporate all revenues and operational costs for the organisation of the Youth Olympic Games, aligned with the split of responsibilities (delivery and financial) as described in the other sections of this questionnaire.

Any upgrades to existing infrastructure or investments in urban or regional development projects should not be included in the Organisation Budget, as they are part of the long-term development plans and vision of the host city/region.

4.4. Additional Financial Information

In addition to the Organisation Budget table referenced above, the Preferred Host(s) is/are requested to submit detailed explanations of their budget development and assumptions in English, in an electronic format (as part of Annex 7). Where tables are used, please provide them electronically in Excel format.

While no set format is requested, the IOC wishes to share the following guidelines for the development of the Additional Financial Information documentation:

1. The figures provided in the budget template should be supported by clear explanations detailing the assumptions and key cost drivers (where applicable) for all budget line items.
2. In the areas where an important part of the services is to be provided by public authorities or other stakeholders, the Preferred Host(s) is/are requested to provide information on:
 - What is assumed and included in the Organisation Budget
 - What will be covered by the public authorities or other entities, which is further supported by the relevant guarantees (see Annex 1 and Annex 5)

Traditionally, the main areas which are supported by public entities or other stakeholders include venue upgrades (where applicable), venue operations and relevant venue equipment (sport, Field of Play preparations and other venue equipment), transport, security including cybersecurity, medical, engagement and other cultural/educational activities.

It is important to demonstrate that there is an agreement on the scope and split of responsibilities (including financial responsibilities) with the related parties.

4.5. Taxes

Describe the various types of taxes (direct and indirect) which are currently levied in your country at all levels of government (national, regional and/or local) which may have an impact on the YOGOC budget. As a result, specify the types of taxes that have been incorporated in the YOGOC budget.
