Dear Colleagues,

After many years with Iveco Ltd, Dottie Dixon, who has been your point of contact, has decided to retire. In the interim Dottie's role will not be replaced and therefore we will be changing the way that we service press enquiries in the Press & PR Department.

Myself, Lisa Fuller and Nick Santon will continue to be your reference points for press enquiries within the Iveco Press & PR Department. However, as the team has numerous other responsibilities, and to ensure we continue to deliver the best possible service to the Press, going forward enquiries and requests for information will be handled as follows:
