

BIOGRAPHY

Frankfurt, 04 December 2018

Dr Detlef Kayser

Member of the Executive Board
Airline Resources & Operations Standards
Deutsche Lufthansa AG

Dr Detlef Kayser (53) will join the Executive Board of Deutsche Lufthansa AG on 1 January 2019 and will be responsible for Airline Resources & Operations Standards.

Kayser, who holds a doctorate in aerospace engineering, joined Lufthansa Group in January 2016 and has been responsible since then for group-wide strategy as well as for the commercial and technical fleet management of Lufthansa Group, group-wide organization and processes as well as corporate governance and corporate investment management as Executive Vice President Strategy and Fleet.

Before joining Lufthansa Group, Detlef Kayser worked for the consulting company McKinsey in a variety of positions, most recently as Director in the company's Hamburg office.

At McKinsey, Kayser was the Global Head of "Manufacturing Practice", advising clients from industry and public administration in over 100 successfully implemented projects, including several for the Lufthansa Group.

He has also made a name for himself as an expert for the Weise commission for the restructuring of the German armed forces, a co-author of the commission's report and a member of the support team for the Munich Security Conference.

Detlef Kayser was born in Kiel on 28 March 1965. He is married and has three children.