

CV Michael Gotthelf

Michael Gotthelf is Head of Sales, Region South, for the Energy Management Division of Siemens AG where he is responsible for all sales operations in the defined region for the products and energy automation solutions, including substation automation, grid-applications and consulting. He is also responsible for the products and solutions in context of power transmission, power distribution and decentralized energy systems. Mr. Gotthelf has been with Siemens AG since 2004, serving in various sales roles, including Power Transmission and Distribution and Electric Vehicle Infrastructure. Mr. Gotthelf has a degree (Dipl.-Ing (FH) in electrical engineers and information technology from the University of applied sciences Deggendorf.