The Spa at Encore Named Spa of the Year by AsiaSpa Awards in 2017

MACAU — (November 22, 2017) – Wynn Macau’s The Spa at Encore has been awarded the “Spa of the Year (North & West Asia)” accolade at the AsiaSpa Awards ceremony held in Hong Kong on November 16.

“The award is a tribute to the ongoing commitment made by Wynn Macau spa team members to delivering exceptional spa experiences to our guests,” said Jennifer Simms, Executive Director of Spa Operation of Wynn Macau and Wynn Palace. “It recognizes our service and quality excellence in the Asia.”

The Spa at Encore takes guests on a journey of extravagant indulgence. Every one of our eight luxurious Private Spa Relaxation Suites features its own steam room, sauna, hydrotherapy aroma bath and relaxation lounge. Dedicated therapists deliver tailored programs for the ultimate personalized spa experience. The Spa at Encore is renowned for its luxurious signature treatments. “1-6-8” is a perfect example. Six therapist hands deliver a series of treatments over a leisurely time of 168 minutes. The ultimate in pampering begins with a full-body Himalayan salt scrub and aromatherapy steam experience, followed by a thoroughly relaxing four hand massage and revitalizing facial. And one final touch: a hydrating paraffin treatment for hands, and a soothing reflexology foot massage.

Created in 2005 to recognize the leaders in Asia’s dynamic industry, AsiaSpa Awards is the prestigious accolade sets the benchmark for quality and innovation for spas in the region. The AsiaSpa Awards commemorates the outstanding efforts of individuals and companies in driving the exceptional standard of Asian spas forward. Judges of AsiaSpa Awards are made up of professional spa experts who are picked for their independent opinions and wide-ranging experience.
