Wynn and MGM Join Hands to Launch Joint Shuttle Bus Route for the First Time

A response to Macau SAR government's transport integration arrangement

Macau, November 30, 2016 – Wynn Resorts (Macau) S.A. and MGM China Holdings Limited have joined hands for the first time to launch a joint shuttle bus route connecting passengers between the Border Gate, Wynn Macau and MGM MACAU to optimize the shuttle bus services of both properties. This initiative is a response to the transport integration arrangement of the Macau SAR government.

The new joint shuttle bus route will be available from December 1, 2016, operating between 9:00am and 12:00am daily. The service frequency will be adjusted based on demand in order to minimize the burden on traffic. During peak hours (i.e. 11:00am to evening), shuttle buses on this route will run every 10 to 15 minutes. The shuttle bus service operated by the two companies will stop at three locations - Border Gate, Wynn Macau and MGM MACAU.

After the optimization, the number of shuttle buses connecting those three locations will be reduced. This not only alleviates the traffic burden on the Macau Peninsula, but also effectively integrates the hotel shuttle bus routes.
