WYNN RESORTS NAMES NEW PRESIDENT OF WYNN MACAU, LIMITED

Macau, September 30, 2016 - Wynn Resorts announced today that Ian Michael Coughlan has assumed leadership responsibility for both Wynn Palace Cotai and Wynn Macau. In his expanded role, Mr. Coughlan has been appointed President of Wynn Macau, Limited, the parent company listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange (HKSE:1128). Mr. Coughlan was previously property president of Wynn Macau.

Earlier today, Mr. Gamal Aziz resigned his post as President of Wynn Macau, Limited. Mr. Aziz was brought in to lead the development and successful opening of Wynn Palace Cotai. Having completed that assignment, Mr. Aziz resigned with the thanks of the Board of Directors, who expressed its gratitude to Mr. Aziz for his significant contributions to the Company.

Mr. Coughlan has served as President of Wynn Macau since 2007, with over 35 years of hospitality experience at leading hotels and resorts across Asia, Europe and the United States.
