Wynn Palace organizes Experiential Day Wynn culture of excellence continues on as star-team expands

MACAU, April 8, 2016 – Wynn organized an “Experiential Day” over three consecutive days starting on April 5, offering team members at Wynn Macau an introductory preview of the soon to open resort – Wynn Palace. The activity enabled participants to visit the exhibition area and understand the facilities the new property will offer.

The event was a success with 3,000 team members from the gaming division participating. The exhibition area was divided into different zones and designated staff introduced the non-gaming highlights of the new project. Delicious canapés and beverages offered a taste of the company’s signature promise of excellence and heartfelt service and there was even a chance to win exciting prizes in a quiz session.

From the hotel’s guest rooms and suites, signature restaurants, exquisitely designed retail spaces and versatile meetings facilities to an opulent spa and salon, the spectacular Performance Lake, SkyCab and floral sculptures, every detail of what makes Wynn Palace unique was on show. Apart from tourist and leisure attractions, the event also introduced facilities and services that Wynn Palace’s team members will be able to enjoy at the new property. A team dining area serving delicious cuisine, beautifully tailored uniforms, medical services and a learning center are just but a few examples.

Wynn is celebrating its 10th anniversary this year, the first integrated resort in Asia has been dedicated to exclusive attractions, delivering the finest service with the help of its team members and supporting Macau’s development into a world center of tourism and leisure. Key to this effort has been the Wynn Academy established in 2007, Macau’s first comprehensive, tailor-made learning and development program offered by an integrated resort.

The embodiment of Wynn’s core values are the company’s employees who, through this initiative, will be transferring to Wynn Palace, ensuring the Wynn’s commitment to excellence will continue to grow and expand. Guests in their turn, will be received with unique attention and personal touch, showcasing the truth in Mr. Wynn’s words “people make people happy”.
