South China Morning Post Names Three Wynn Restaurants Among 20 Top Tables

Golden Flower and Mizumi at Wynn Macau and Wing Lei Palace at Wynn Palace recognized for their exceptional dining experiences

Macau, March 14, 2019 — Golden Flower and Mizumi at Wynn Macau in addition to Wing Lei Palace at Wynn Palace have been named among the top 20 restaurants in Macau by the prestigious 100 Top Tables 2019 – A CEO's Dining Guide. Published by South China Morning Post (SCMP), 100 Top Tables 2019 is the definitive guide to executive dining in Hong Kong and Macau.

For seven consecutive years, Wynn Macau's renowned Golden Flower restaurant has received recognition from SCMP's 100 Top Tables. Golden Flower gives diners an opportunity to experience authentic Tan dishes, an exclusive culinary tradition from the Qing dynasty, in an intimate venue that reflects China's historic influence on the world. Tan cuisine is a very meticulous style of cooking that protects the original flavors of premium ingredients sourced from around the globe and involves labor-intensive cooking methods that are strictly adhered to by the experienced team of chefs at Golden Flower.

Wynn Macau's Mizumi showcases the exquisite art of Japanese cuisine. The Japanese master chefs at Mizumi carefully select the finest seasonal ingredients from Japan and around the world to create each dish. In keeping with the Japanese tradition to offer a more intimate and interactive experience, the chefs will also engage in conversation with guests as they dine. The Mizumi experience is truly unique and sets a new benchmark in Japanese dining for diners in Macau.

Wing Lei Palace at Wynn Palace artfully designs Cantonese dishes that are tailored to the palates of each guest. The delicate works of art created by the talented team of chefs at Wing Lei Palace are full of fresh and healthy ingredients and sprinkled with a dash of herbs that are in harmony with each season. The restaurant presents each new dish with an innovative flair, yet also carefully preserves the rich traditions of Cantonese cooking. Wing Lei Palace offers an exquisite dining experience in a palatial setting where diners can enjoy magnificent views of the spectacular, eight-acre Performance Lake from every seat.
