The Spa at Wynn Receives Prestigious SpaChina “Most Creative Body Treatment of the Year” 2019 Award

Macau, September 16, 2019 – SpaChina magazine recently hosted the SpaChina Awards 2019, gathering together China’s leading spa and wellness professionals as well as highly respected judges from the industry. The Spa at Wynn received the highly regarded “Most Creative Body Treatment” award from SpaChina this year for its offering of the “Beau-TEA Ritual”.

Jennifer Simms, Executive Director of Spa Operations for Wynn Macau and Wynn Palace Cotai said of the award: “We are honored to receive this prestigious award from the leading authority on spas in China – SpaChina magazine. The “Most Creative Body Treatment” award for The Spa at Wynn recognizes the exceptional service delivered by our team and is an affirmation of the unparalleled customer experience that our guests enjoy while they are with us. We are also very pleased that The Spa at Wynn is very well received by the Chinese market.”

The “Beau-TEA Ritual” was specially curated by The Spa at Wynn team. Drawing inspirations from the rich Chinese heritage of tea, “Beau-TEA Ritual” combines tea, which is well known for its antioxidant properties, and Chinese acupressure techniques to counteract the effects of pollution, melt away tension and instill a refreshing, glowing appearance.

Located on the first floor of Wynn Macau, The Spa at Wynn offers a fully immersive experience with 14 treatment rooms and spa therapies that include body massages, signature treatments, and facials for guests to enjoy a thoroughly relaxing day at the spa. The Spa at Wynn is divided into private areas for men and women so that they may enjoy their own whirlpool, steam room, sauna, lounge and amenities. The Asian-inspired artistic space features a wall that is adorned with lantern and jade inspired installations, and a ceiling that is decorated with lotus flowers to create a sense of calm and for a feeling of being surrounded by nature.

Since launching the SpaChina Awards in 2010 to promote the development of China’s spa industry and to honor outstanding leaders in the field, it has now become the industry’s most anticipated annual awards event. The panel of judges for the SpaChina Awards consists of highly respected spa and wellness experts. The award results are a culmination of a five-month evaluation of spas by the judge panel. Once initial selections are made, a list is posted on WeChat for final public voting. The awards ceremony honors China’s most outstanding spas and professionals in the spa industry.
