At the event, nearly 30 charities and social service organizations that have been working alongside Wynn for many years were invited to set up game booths. There were also inspiring performances as part of the celebrations, gathering volunteers, community partners and the general public to celebrate this important milestone. Charity sale booths and charity prize vouchers were also set up at the fun fair to raise funds for the 37th Walk For A Million, local charities and social service organizations. Together, these initiatives all contribute to the goal of building an inclusive society.

She also thanked each volunteer for their enduring dedication and selfless contributions, actively participating in various community services and volunteer activities that provide care and help to those in need in Macau society. In her speech, Ms. Chen said, “WE Volunteer Because WE Care, with a shared belief in spreading love and care among the community to bring happiness and help others, the WE Volunteer Team has grown from a small team at first to one with more than 2,600 volunteers today, with nearly 50,000 service hours to date. Thank you for continuing to transmit truth, kindness and beauty to society. This success is also inseparable from the support and cooperation provided by government departments and a range of social service organizations, which ensures that we can continually practice and promote the work of effectively giving back to society.”

The fun fair attracted active participation from many citizens and members of social service organizations, receiving an enthusiastic response. With game and charity sales booths set up by various organizations, which were supported by WE Volunteer team members onsite, joyful activities helped to further promote community inclusion. Numerous organizations were invited to the event to take part in wonderful displays of talent, creating a lively atmosphere at the event.

To commemorate the anniversary milestone, Wynn has held a series of art workshops over the past few months, inviting ten community partners that have been working closely with the WE Volunteer Team to join hands together and create ten artworks under the theme of “WE Volunteer Team’s 10th anniversary”. The artworks were displayed in a designated exhibition area at the event to share the joy of the 10th anniversary with the public and demonstrate Wynn’s spirit of love and care.

Established in 2010, the WE Volunteer Team has continually cooperated with different social service organizations each year to organize various community activities, with the aim of bringing friendship, harmony and care to the community. Apart from providing the team members with enriching experience and rewards, these activities also enable the power of “Wynn Care” to spread to different corners of the community, benefiting more people and helping to build a better and harmonious society.
