Wynn Garners ATD BEST Award 2023

The sole recipient in Hong Kong and Macau for this year's honor

Macau, June 20, 2023 — Wynn is excited to announce that Wynn Macau, Limited has been honored with the “BEST Award” by the Association for Talent Development (ATD) on May 22, making it the only enterprise in Hong Kong and Macau to achieve this distinction in 2023. This award highlights Wynn's remarkable accomplishments in talent-driven initiatives, corporate culture, and performance management, showcasing the recognition from international authoritative organizations. Wynn has always prioritized local talent growth and development. Throughout the years, Wynn has proactively offered diverse learning opportunities and training courses for its team members, fostering promotion opportunities for local employees, and nurturing a robust talent pool.

Established in 1943, ATD is the world's largest international association dedicated to talent development. The “BEST Award” represents the most prestigious international honor in talent development, recognizing organizations and enterprises worldwide who prioritize talent development and organizational learning, continuously cultivate corporate culture, and enhance business performance. Annually, the association assembles a jury of international experts for the thorough assessment of participating enterprises. To receive the award, enterprises must demonstrate well-rounded capabilities in talent development. These include emphasizing the significance of talent development within the organization, recognizing the value of training in shaping corporate culture, understanding the connection between training and individual performance, investing in talent development, and implementing performance-related initiatives.

Wynn is committed to incorporating talent cultivation and development into its corporate culture, consistently investing in the creation of a comprehensive training system, and offering team members promotional opportunities and lateral growth. Through various initiatives, including professional development programs, leadership training and mentorship opportunities, Wynn has been providing team members with the necessary skills and knowledge, as well as helping them achieve their career aspirations, and contributing to the talent pool and diversified development of Macau.

Moving forward, Wynn will continue to develop high-quality professional talents for the industry through organizing an extensive array of on-the-job training and offering talent development opportunities. Wynn is dedicated to playing an integral role in Macau's journey to becoming a world center for tourism and leisure, boasting comprehensive tourism competitiveness.
