In support of the Macao SAR Government's diverse array of events all throughout the Chinese New Year, Wynn is pleased to encourage more visitation to the Rua da Felicidade Pedestrian Zone by presenting an array of festive culinary delicacies, specially concocted beverages and cultural traditions. From February 10 to 18 and February 23 to 25, the Rua da Felicidade Pedestrian Zone will be filled with festive Chinese New Year décor, traditional cultural performances and a lively handicrafts market. Wynn is also crafting specialty cocktails, limited-edition Chinese New Year cookies, and inviting visitors to join in free guided cultural tours along Rua da Felicidade. The God of Wealth will also be visiting Rua da Felicidade to spread good fortune and share his blessings with everyone from February 10 (the first day of Chinese New Year) to February 14 (the fifth day of Chinese New Year). Through the series of festive activities, delicious delicacies and cocktails, Wynn hopes to give visitors and local residents a deeper insight into the unique character of Macao's historic neighborhoods. While walking through the colorful streets of Rua de Felicidade, visitors will be able to share in the joy and excitement of celebrating Chinese New Year together with locals.

A vibrant Chinese New Year parade

On February 12 (the third day of Chinese New Year) and February 17 (the eighth day of Chinese New Year), Wynn will participate in the "Parade for Celebration for the Year of the Dragon 2024" hosted by the Macao Government Tourism Office. This year, the design of the Wynn float features the iconic Wynn SkyCab and a golden dragon to symbolize a dragon taking flight to bring good fortune to everyone at Chinese New Year. Performers from all walks of life will lead a joyful celebration along Rua da Felicidade, extending their best wishes to everyone in Macao for the Year of the Dragon.

Traditional dragon and lion dance performances

Each year, the dragon and lion dance performances are an indispensable part of Chinese New Year traditions at Wynn Macau and Wynn Palace. On February 17 (the eighth day of Chinese New Year) and February 18 (the ninth day of Chinese New Year), dragon and lion dances will be held at both properties to spread good fortune with the lighting of firecrackers. Spectators can follow in the footsteps of the lion dance team as they dance to the beat of drums and weave their way through all major areas of each resort while "plucking the green" – a symbolic way of spreading blessings of peace, prosperity, and good health. Both resorts will be full of elegant Chinese New Year décor, for a truly festive atmosphere.
