2014 Lamborghini Blancpain Super Trofeo Asia Series Thrills Participants and Spectators on Second Race Day in Sepang

May 11th 2014, Sepang (Malaysia) - The second day for 2014 Lamborghini Blancpain Super Trofeo kick-off weekend at the Sepang International Circuit, was truly a breathtaking demonstration of raw power, finesse and speed.

While the previous day's race commenced in the early evening where temperatures remain difficult to cope - today's midday competition presented an overwhelming challenge to drivers, as temperatures in Sepang soared to almost agonizing levels. Drivers however confronted this challenge unfazed, with the focus, determination and class personified by this series, and exemplified by both Lamborghini and Blancpain.

Today's race was a thrilling spectacle - with cars routinely contesting for spots on the podium, with close passing and extreme power through the straight-aways. Yesterday's champions from both classes also remained in top-form today, with the Chinese #9 car driven by Max Wiser and Jiang Xin as well the #24 car driven by Dilantha Malagamuwa (SRI) and Manabu Orido (JPN) taking the top-two spots in the PRO-AM class respectively.

Despite recording the fastest lap-time of the competition (2:12:13), Champion Max Wiser noted that track conditions were extremely challenging, and understanding how to optimize tires under these conditions was a key element to success, "Today was even harder than yesterday - with temperatures rising to almost 70 degrees in the car and on the track, it's very challenging and slippery - it's not the g-force you need to worry about, it's the heat." He also mentioned that for climate like Sepang, drivers often train in the gym for weeks preceding the races to help cope with these types of conditions.

With two consecutive second-place finishes in the AM class, Andrea Garbagnati also echoed Wiser's reaction to today's conditions - "I love this track and I love Malaysia - but today was very hot meaning we had to take special care regarding our tires. I think the key to our success today was playing it smart and not pushing too hard at the start... I can't wait to come back in November!"

The two Japanese cars driven by Toshiyuki Ochiai/Manabu Orido (#12) and Motoaki Ishikawa/Takuya Shirasaka (#5) also faired extremely well today, taking third-place in the PRO-AM class and second-place the AM class respectively. Hong Kong driver William Lok was elated today - after a DNF result during yesterday's race, he battled back today with a third-place podium finish in the AM class.

The AM class Malaysian team of Zen Low Suan Chuan and Dominic Ang delighted local fans with a very strong performance this weekend on their home-track. With a third-place finish yesterday, they barely missed the podium today with a strong fifth-place performance. Zen Low Suan Chuan was happy with their performance - "The car performed really well this weekend. The track was so hot, so the races were quite challenging and it's always a great experience when you can race in your home-country"

The 2014 Lamborghini Blancpain Super Trofeo Series will hold its second stop of the season in Sentul, Indonesia on 7th - 8th June, which promises to be just as thrilling as the awesome spectacle witnessed in Sepang this past weekend.

Blancpain - Over 275 years of tradition in motion

Founded in 1735 by Jehan-Jacques Blancpain, the watch brand bearing his name is the oldest in the world. Blancpain is currently engaged to the renewal of mechanical watchmaking and to passing on exceptional expertise from one generation to the next through constant investment in human resources, production facilities and research. This approach is its strength and the expression of our long-term vision, even though it goes against the tide of a certain tendency to seek immediate profit.

From the creation of components through to watch design, Blancpain is distinguished by its ability to develop exceptional movements. Over the past 9 years, the Manufacture has indeed developed no less than 32 new calibres.

Through its various models, Blancpain preserves its heritage of precision and elegance, while also displaying an innovative and occasionally provocative spirit. Its range encompasses the sportive L-evolution line, the legendary Fifty Fathoms diver's watch, as well as the classic Villeret collection, the high complication from Le Brassus collection and the Women models.

Pirelli

Founded in 1872, Pirelli is the world's fifth largest tyre manufacturer based on revenues. With a presence in over 160 countries, the company now has 22 tyre manufacturing facilities on four continents and employs some 38,000 people.

Having been involved in motor racing since 1907, Pirelli has been confirmed as single tyre manufacturer for Formula 1™ for the 2014-2016 championship seasons and for the World Superbike Championship. This is an important challenge in terms of technological innovation and is a key means of promoting the Pirelli brand.

In 2014, Pirelli underlines its status as the global tyre manufacturer with the biggest commitment to motorsport. In total, the Italian firm supplies around 150 different championships across the world, excluding Formula One, both on the road and on the track. One of the most important engagements is the Lamborghini Blancpain Super Trofeo, supplied exclusively by Pirelli, which highlights the strong technical collaboration that the two Italian icons have shared since 1963.
