

Press Release

Patrick Kujala (Bonaldi Motorsport) takes third straight win in Lamborghini Blancpain Super Trofeo Europe Race 1 at Silverstone.

Sant'Agata Bolognese / Silverstone, May 23rd, 2015. It was a sensational day for Patrick Kujala at Silverstone, as the Finnish racer captured his third straight win in round two of the 2015 Lamborghini Blancpain Super Trofeo Europe. After pulling a stunning double victory at Monza, he did it all again in the United Kingdom by cruising from pole to win in Race 1. Driving for Bonaldi Motorsport, Kujala had to fend off the attacks of the Raton Racing duo of Edoardo Liberati and Patric Niederhauser, who had recovered with an aggressive drive among traffic before eventually settling for second place.

Fielded by Team Lazarus, Sergio Campana and Fabrizio Crestani ended up in third place with a late attack on German racer Florian Spengler. The German drove another Bonaldi Motorsport-prepared Lamborghini Huracán LP 620-2 Super Trofeo to fourth place, followed by Silverstone's new-entry Isaac Tutumlu, paired by Gerhard Tweraser. The latter was also penalized for a contact on lap four that cost Giacomo Barri several positions, who was battling amongst the top five with his Imperiale Racing car. Together with team-mate Alberto Cerqui, Barri then delivered a bold recovery to eighth place.

Loris Spinelli and Marco Moscato took sixth place overall and the PRO-AM class victory for Antonelli Motorsport. They were followed by Simone Pellegrinelli, driving for Imperiale Racing, and by the Artline Team Georgia pairing of Mikhail Stepanov and Harald Schlegelmilch who ended up third in class and ninth overall.

Swissmen Cedric Leimer and Laurent Jenny edged Shota Abkhazava (Artline Team Georgia) and Mikhail Spiridonov (Kinetik Racing Team) to take the AM honours for X Bionic Racing Team.

X Bionic Racing Team also prevailed among the Gallardo LP 570-4 Super Trofeo cars with Cyril Leimer delivering a solid run to top a hard-challenging pack.

Teams and Drivers will be back on-track tomorrow for the second race of the weekend scheduled at 12:35 CET. The race race will be streamed live on the Lamborghini Squadra Corse website (<http://squadracorse.lamborghini.com/en/live>).

Drivers Quotes

Patrick Kujala #32 – Bonaldi Motorsport (Overall and PRO class winner): “The last few laps were really difficult due to the lapped traffic. All the advantage I had built from the start almost disappeared in just a few laps. Anyway I am really satisfied in having captured my third straight victory.”

Loris Spinelli #15 – Antonelli Motorsport (PRO-AM class winners): “Our weekend did not start in the best possible way despite an eight place overall in qualifying. At the start I decided to reduce the risks to a minimum and everything else went pretty well. Moscato also did a great job by delivering a solid second stint.

Laurent Jenny #63 – X Bionic Racing Team (AM class winners): “Leimer delivered a sensational start, and the team has been equally spectacular in handing us a perfect car. They deserve a lot of credit for today’s result.”

Cyril Leimer #19 – X Bionic Racing Team (AMG class winner): “This is my maiden win and also my first podium finish. I could not be happier. My race has been really positive all around and I had no problems whatsoever.”

Blancpain - Innovation is our Tradition

Founded in 1735 by Jehan-Jacques Blancpain in the Swiss Jura, Blancpain is the world's oldest watch brand. Loyal to its tradition of innovation, confirmed by countless horological complications invented over the years, this same spirit of inventiveness continues to drive the master-watchmakers of the Manufacture. Determined to move beyond the borders of its legacy, Blancpain is constantly regenerated as it pushes the frontiers of watchmaking in perpetually enhancing its timepieces.

Today, Blancpain pursues its enduring commitment to the renewal of mechanical horology, steadily passing on exceptional expertise from one generation to the next by constant investments in human resources, production technologies and research. This approach is the source of its strength and expresses a long-term vision deliberately running counter to any tendency to seek immediate profit.

From creating components to designing watches, Blancpain is distinguished by its capacity to develop exceptional timepieces and over the past ten years, the Manufacture has introduced no less than 35 new calibres.

This philosophy is conveyed through each of the brand's creations and all its collections: from the classic Villeret to the legendary Fifty Fathoms diver's watch, as well as Grandes Complications from the Le Brassus collection and the sporty L-evolution line – while naturally never forgetting its Women models.
