

Lamborghini Racers Complete Boldest Street Race In The Asia Series

August 9th 2015, Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia) - Lamborghini and Blancpain celebrated a successful weekend of racing as the first ever Kuala Lumpur City Grand Prix came to a close on Sunday afternoon. class, it was Andrew Haryanto and Fitra Eri from Indonesia who took pole, with Vincent Wong and Brian Tong from Hong Kong. Second, followed in third by Akira Mizutani and Omaccha.

Racing proved to be just as intense and action packed as the previous day, if not more-so. The challengingly tight track and corners tested even professional drivers to their limits, including local favorite Afiq Yazid who was unfortunately unable to finish the race.

Lamborghini is visionary, passionate, and bold. The Kuala Lumpur City Grand Prix event is an excellent example of how Automobili Lamborghini are ready and willing to step outside of the usual format and to go the extra mile in creating something truly unique and thrilling for their customers and fans. A first of its kind event like the KLCGP is not only exciting for participants and spectators but raises the profile of motorsport in general, giving greater exposure to people from all walks of life.

Just as the excitement of the KLCGP draws to an end, Lamborghini, Blancpain, the drivers and teams are turning their focus towards Sentul, the next stop of the Asian Super Trofeo Asia series. The September race at the world famous Indonesian circuit will allow drivers another chance to push up in the rankings before the semi-final in Shanghai in October.

Blancpain - Innovation is our Tradition

Founded in 1735 by Jehan-Jacques Blancpain in the Swiss Jura, Blancpain is the world's oldest watch brand. Loyal to its tradition of innovation, confirmed by countless horological complications invented over the years, this same spirit of inventiveness continues to drive the master-watchmakers of the Manufacture. Determined to move beyond the borders of its legacy, Blancpain is constantly regenerated as it pushes the frontiers of watchmaking in perpetually enhancing its timepieces.

Today, Blancpain pursues its enduring commitment to the renewal of mechanical horology, steadily passing on exceptional expertise from one generation to the next by constant investments in human resources, production technologies and research. This approach is the source of its strength and expresses a long-term vision deliberately running counter to any tendency to seek immediate profit.

From creating components to designing watches, Blancpain is distinguished by its capacity to develop exceptional timepieces and over the past ten years, the Manufacture has introduced no less than 35 new calibres.

This philosophy is conveyed through each of the brand's creations and all its collections: from the classic Villeret to the legendary Fifty Fathoms diver's watch, as well as Grandes Complications from the Le Brassus collection and the sporty L-evolution line - while naturally never forgetting its Women models.
