

Press Release

The Lamborghini Blancpain Super Trofeo World Final drives into action: Kujala (PRO), Lewis (PRO-AM), Ryan Ockey (AM) and Hurley (Gallardo) share wins in Race 1.

Sebring / Sant'Agata Bolognese, 21 November 2015. A top entry list produced a great show in the third edition of the Lamborghini Blancpain Super Trofeo World Final today at Sebring International Raceway, USA.

With a 32-car grid in the PRO and PRO-AM class race, Finnish driver Patrick Kujala - already European champion under the banner of the Bonaldi Motorsport team - and American Corey Lewis, who made an extraordinary recovery from the middle of the grid with the Carolinas/Change Racing car, shared the wins.

Swiss Patric Niederhauser monopolized both of the qualifying sessions, the second of which defined the starting grid of Race 2 tomorrow. The young Raton Racing driver, who set the quickest lap of 2:00.188 at the end of Q1, was passed at the very first turn by Kujala. Niederhauser returned to first after the pit stop. Eventually he was assessed a stop-and go penalty due to speeding in pit lane. This elevated Antonelli Motorsport duo Loris Spinelli-Daniel Zampieri to second. Zampieri then resisted attacks from Richard Antinucci over the final laps in the Beverly Hills/O'Gara Motorsport car shared with Edoardo Piscopo. Alberto Di Folco earned fourth place ahead of Florian Spengler.

Lewis finished sixth overall, with the PRO-AM win. He pipped in the second part of the race the Italian-Chinese duo Edoardo Liberati-Yuan Bo, champions of the Asian series. Adrian Amstutz and Giovanni Venturini completed the podium for Konrad Motorsport.

In the AM and Gallardo race, Canadian Ryan Ockey (Vancouver/O'Gara Motorsport) and American Josh Hurley (Miami/Musante-Courtney Racing) took one win each. The contact between polesitter Damon Ockey and Josh Norman (Palm Beach/BAD Lambo Racing) was decisive. Eventually Norman was penalized and finished fourth. Briton Steve Tandy (Imperiale Racing) claimed second place, while Damon Ockey was third. In the Gallardo class, Hurley finished in front of Brandon Gdovic (Palm Beach/Mitchum Motorsport) and Jake Rattenbury (Carolinas/Change Racing).

Race 2 tomorrow will determine the final titles of the season. The AM and Gallardo race will start at 15.30 CET. The PRO and PRO-AM race is scheduled for 17.30 CET. Both will be featured on live streaming at the Lamborghini Squadra Corse website <http://squadracorse.lamborghini.com/en/live-world-final>.

Driver quotes

Patrick Kujala #132 - Bonaldi Motorsport (first overall and PRO class winner): "It was a very tough race. Eventually I claimed another important result. Tomorrow I will do the best to achieve also this title."

Corey Lewis #29 - Carolinas/Change Racing (sixth overall and first in PRO-AM class): "It was simply amazing. The team made a great job. The car was perfect. I wish to thank my squad, my family and everyone that supported me."

Ryan Ockey #89 - O'Gara Motorsport (first overall and AM class winner): "An exciting race, lots of good action. An excellent afternoon for me, shame for the crash at the very end".

Josh Hurley #76 - Musante/Courtney Racing (third overall and Gallardo class winner): "It was way harder than expected. My setup was not perfect as well as my start. I was fifth at Lap 1 but then I made my way up to P1, and I'm very happy".

Blancpain - Innovation is our Tradition

Founded in 1735 by Jehan-Jacques Blancpain in the Swiss Jura, Blancpain is the world's oldest watch brand. Loyal to its tradition of innovation, confirmed by countless horological complications invented over the years, this same spirit of inventiveness continues to drive the master-watchmakers of the Manufacture. Determined to move beyond the borders of its legacy, Blancpain is constantly regenerated as it pushes the frontiers of watchmaking in perpetually enhancing its timepieces.

Today, Blancpain pursues its enduring commitment to the renewal of mechanical horology, steadily passing on exceptional expertise from one generation to the next by constant investments in human resources, production technologies and research. This approach is the source of its strength and expresses a long-term vision deliberately running counter to any tendency to seek immediate profit.

From creating components to designing watches, Blancpain is distinguished by its capacity to develop exceptional timepieces and over the past ten years, the Manufacture has introduced no less than 35 new calibres.

This philosophy is conveyed through each of the brand's creations and all its collections: from the classic Villeret to the legendary Fifty Fathoms diver's watch, as well as Grandes Complications from the Le Brassus collection and the sporty L-evolution line - while naturally never forgetting its Women models.
