

Mitja Borkert

Head of Design at Automobili Lamborghini

Mitja Borkert is Head of Design at Lamborghini Centro Stile (design center) from 4 April 2016.

Mr. Borkert is responsible for the design of future Lamborghini models and the coordination of the design team, reporting to Maurizio Reggiani, Chief Technical Officer.

Borkert is German, aged 43, and attended the Design University of Pforzheim where he graduated in Transportation Design. In 1999, he began work at Style Porsche, in Weissach, holding various positions, including General Manager Advanced Design until 2014, when he was appointed Director of Exterior Design.

He contributed to the development of several Porsche models (Panamera Sport Turismo, Porsche Boxster 987 facelift, Cayenne, Macan, Mission e).

Since his arrival in Lamborghini, he supervised the creation of the Super Trofeo Evo, the Urus and the Terzo Millennio.