Huracán Tecnica - a car with many souls

Performance according to Paola Egonu

Sant'Agata Bolognese, 19 May 2022 - The new Huracán Tecnica has many souls, exceptional performance being one. In a series of interviews Lamborghini explores the diverse personality of Tecnica.

Like athletes at the top of their profession, the best super sports car performance is not just about being first off the start line or a top speed: it demands the coming together of many disciplines, with exceptional performance influenced by many factors. Paola Egonu, Italian volleyball star playing for team Imoco Volley and a member of the Italian national ladies' squad, is famed for her vertical jump with a reputation as one of the most powerful volleyball spikers in the world. Through Paola's innate understanding of attributes necessary to achieve the best performance, including power, beauty, emotion and evolution, Lamborghini draws a parallel between the performance achieved by an exceptional athlete and its latest super sports V10, the Huracán Tecnica.
