

Automobili Lamborghini gets ready for the holidays with an exclusive Gift Guide

A selection of unique collaborations expresses the soul of the brand with design, innovation and excellence

Sant'Agata Bolognese, 20 November 2025 – Christmas filled with style and adrenaline: Automobili Lamborghini ignites the magic of seasonal holidays with gifts created for those who love the beauty of bold lines and the power of pure emotions. Iconic collaborations, artisanal details, and quintessentially Italian elegance tell stories of passion and performance: from the little dreams of those who play at building the future to the desires of those who constantly live and breathe speed, Automobili Lamborghini proposes a universe of unique gift ideas.

For the youngsters, as well as others of course, the LEGO collaboration creates some really exciting products this holiday, with the Revuelto and Huracán STO models from LEGO Speed Champions and the sophisticated remote-controlled Revuelto from LEGO TECHNIC. It's an invitation to build the legend, piece by piece. With Clementoni on the other hand, it's all about discovery, where the kits dedicated to Huracán and Urus stimulate creativity and manual skill, accompanying the little ones into the heart of Lamborghini engineering.

For those who live sport as an extension of their own style, the collaboration with 3T brings the racing spirit to Gravel and Road bikes with an exclusive design: the same passion, the same drive for perfection, on two wheels. Everyday life is more sustainable, thanks to the line of water bottles and tumblers from 24Bottles inspired by the Huracán Sterrato 'all terrain', while an infusion of luxury is delivered by the ambient fragrances from Culti Milano, including the most recent Grigio Vulcano (gray): a rich, sophisticated scent that brings a Lamborghini atmosphere into the home.

Those who love to fuse fashion and performance will find the collaborations with Macron and Orlebar Brown irresistible. The Activewear by Macron collection interprets Lamborghini power in a sporty tone with dynamic lines and colors inspired by the brand's iconic hues. The beachwear by Orlebar Brown x Automobili Lamborghini is dedicated to lovers of sun and sea, inspired by the reflections of Miami Beach, the sculptural power of the Revuelto, and the boldness of the Countach. For those who love timeless elegance, the loafers and sneakers from the Tod's x Automobili Lamborghini collaboration are the perfect gift to transform any look into an expression of sophisticated and dynamic style.

For music lovers, Christmas is transformed into a stunning sonic experience thanks to the collaborations with Technics and Sonus faber. Technics has created a one-of-a-kind turntable that blends refined design and innovation with the DNA of Lamborghini design. Sonus faber, on the other hand, presents the exclusive Cremonese Ex3me – Automobili Lamborghini Edition, an ultra-high performance loudspeaker designed to create an unparalleled listening experience.

The collaboration between Automobili Lamborghini and Cartiera, an ethical fashion workshop that produces accessories made of recovered leather and fabric, has created tote bags, smartphone cases, wallets and key holders, all personalized with the Automobili Lamborghini shield: original gifts, practical and made in the spirit of sustainability for true enthusiasts.

Finally, for those who wish to discover every facet of Automobili Lamborghini, the book Automobili Lamborghini. Past. Present. Future is the perfect gift. Published by White Star, the photography book recounts more than sixty years of excellence through photographs, archive drawings, and stories of innovation.

This Christmas, ignite a super sports car passion and give gifts that inspire high-speed emotions.

With Automobili Lamborghini, each gift becomes a journey into the heart of excellence and performance.
