

AFRICA UNITY REPLICA JERSEY

Article: 736946
 Color: 01
 Size: S-XXL
 Material: 89% Polyester, 11% Elastane, Circular Knitted Jersey, Wicking Finish

Inspired by the heat of the African sun, the vast skies and the continent's rich soil, the PUMA Africa Unity Replica Jersey is a take-down version of a revolutionary new football jersey and the world's first 'continental football kit'. Designed to be worn by PUMA's African football national teams and by some of the continent's best players -- Samuel Eto'o, Emmanuel Eboué and John Mensah.

Its unique colourway is bespoke. The brown pantone was created by mixing actual soil samples from Ghana, Ivory Coast, South Africa and Cameroon. The colour gradient transitions from brown to blue is a visual metaphor for soil to sky. All of the applications—the number and the badge—are cast in yellow representing the sun shining down on Africa.

The replica jerseys come pre-printed with 'Africa 10' on the back in the position where players' names and numbers would otherwise be found. The replica jersey also features the Africa Unity Badge depicting two hands locked in a solidarity handshake.
