

Men's Bolt ACTV 2-in-1 Short

Style Number: 509775 02

Materials: Inner: 76% Polyester, 24% Lycra Sport; Outer: 86% Polyester, 14% Elastane; PUMA ACTV Tape; Mesh Inserts; Reflectives.

From the Bolt Collection, the PUMA ACTV* 2-in-1 Short is engineered for high performance and endurance sports.

PUMA ACTV, a fusion of advanced compression and athletic taping, is designed to work with the body to help maximize muscle power during a high performance workout.

The stretchy, built-in silicone athletic taping is strategically placed to micro-massage the skin in the most critical areas, intended to help an athlete's workout and energy supply.

This powerCELL™ garment includes mesh inserts for increased breathability and reflective logos for visibility, adding functionality needed for athletic performance.
