ROOTED IN ANATOMY & INSPIRED BY NATURE....

PUMA Mobium offers a new form of adaptive movement without constraint, propelling forward past the notion of conventional running backpacks.

The Mobium Backpack Glow naturally adapts to a runner as the body twists with each stride. Split into two secure main compartments, the straps and back panel deliver the right amount of volume without compromising freedom of movement or comfort.

The built-in benefit with 3M reflective fabric provides protection in low light conditions offering runners another edge: visibility.
